CLUB NOTES

We welcome our friends and neighbours from bright and breezy Blackpool in this opening engagement of our Eastertide programme — a chance for North End to record their third double win of the season, if only to make amends for a double defeat by the Seasiders last term, when we contested our very first Xmas clashes together, after a span of seventy years' encounters. Of encouragement to North Enders is the fact that in previous exchanges, we have the better record of the two clubs both at home and away :

PARKING OF MOTOR VEHICLES

All football supporters are asked to co-operate with the police and fire services in traffic matters near Deepdale. Large car parks exist within a short distance of the ground and more use ought to be made of them. Indiscriminate parking, often on both sides of narrow streets, is an undesirable hazard to the safety of lives and property. In an emergency these conditions would seriously interfere with fire engines, ambulances and police vehicles. Your co-operation in this matter would be appreciated.

MEET THE OPPOSITION . . . .

Recently in the doldrums, Blackpool have indeed made a remarkable recovery—to such an extent that they now find themselves linked with North End in the respectable half of the league table. A successful run was halted last Saturday at Bloomfield Road by lowly Birmingham — but the Seasiders will be fully determined to atone this afternoon, if only to put paid to any ideas of North End's third double win of the season. Blackpool have an excellent away record, in fact only Spurs and Bolton have sacrificed fewer goals on visiting grounds.

In goal a newcomer confronts the North End attack, the Southport born TONY WAITERS, aged 23 years—recent successor to George Farm, signed professional for Blackpool in October, 1959, without any previous League experience. Right full back and straight from Hampden Park last week comes JIMMY ARMFIELD, a native of Denton, Manchester, reared in the Blackpool atmosphere, signed up in May, 1952, converted from a winger to full England recognition as a cool and classy full back. His partner on the left is the 24-years-old BARRY MARTIN, born in Birmingham, signed professional for the Bloomfield Road Club at the age of 17 years, in December, 1953.

Right half JIMMY KELLY, who comes from Linton, Morpeth, in Northumberland, transferred from Watford F.C., in October, 1954, after being with the London club since his schooldays. In the middle of the half back trio stands ROY GRATRIX, automatic choice—born at Salford, switched from full back to succeed Harry Johnston as pivot, already played for England 'B', he joined the Seasiders in 1953 from a junior works side in a Manchester league. At present filling the left half berth is the former inside forward DAVID DURIE, the only local born player in the side. Produced by Oxford Amateurs in Blackpool junior circles, teamed up with the Bloomfield Road outfit in 1952.

Right winger could be the evergreen STAN MATTHEWS, the 44 years-young wizard of the wing from Hanley in the Potteries, who first played in League football with Stoke City as long ago as 1931, gaining the first of his many England Caps in 1935. Went to Blackpool from Stoke City in May, 1947. Inside or outside right is the Barnsley-born ex schoolboy international ARTHUR KAYE, that forceful little penalty kick exponent, a native of Barnsley, England Under 23's choice, signed by the Seasiders last close season. He joined Barnsley from schooldays, to make his League debut at the age of 17 years, in 1952. Inside right or left and former free-scoring centre forward is the Scottish international JACK MUDIE, born Dundee—a former junior with Lochee Harp F.C. He went to Blackpool in 1946, and is succeeded at centre forward by the Lancaster-born RAY CHARNLEY, aged 24 years, signed from Morecambe F.C. in May, 1957. Always on or near the goal-getting mark since his introduction to the top flight.

Inside left is a recent newcomer to the Bloomfield Road scene, the 20-years-old Warrington-born JOHN GREEN, signed from Tranmere Rovers in February, 1958, and transferred to Blackpool in March, 1959. He made his Blackpool debut this season. On his left is the England international and Johannesburg-born South African BILL PERRY, who starred for Johannesburg Rangers prior to arriving in this country in 1949, when he joined forces with the Seasiders. One of only three left of the last two Blackpool teams in Wembley Cup Finals.
